Chili Cook-Off Rules and Information

- Set up is at 8am. You will be assigned a table and a number. Judging starts at 2pm.
- Each Contestant should bring a crockpot. Decorations for your table to compliment your chili. Make up a name for your chili to describe it to tasters.
- You may bring your own ice chest with drinks, an ice chest is also needed to keep perishable food cold to use for your chili.
- Contestants are to provide their own propane cooking stoves, serving utensils and sanitation equipment. Ex. Gloves, Dish tub with water jug, Disinfectant wipes.
- Chili must be cooked on site, pre-preparation is allowed ahead of time but the actual chili must be cooked the day of the cook-off.
- You will be disqualified if your cooking conditions fail to meet the event directors inspection.
- Pre-mixed ingredients are not permitted, ex. Six Gun Chili Mix or mixes that just require you to "just add meat".
- We will provide tasting cups and spoons, as well as napkins.
- Garnishes are allowed to be served with your Chili, please use gloves when handling and serving food.

Judging Rules: A single score will be tallied for each entry. Judges will be looking to see who has the most Traditional and the most Creative Chili. Aroma, Consistency, Color, Taste and Texture will be rated as well.

Note: Due to limited site access and safety considerations, we ask that you plan on staying at the event until the award presentation is completed. Vehicles will not be allowed access to the site after 9am.
